Synergies Protocol on Interdisciplinary Research

Draft 3 - 16 Oct 2013

Simon Penny <penny@uci.edu>

This document presents formulated guidelines for institutions, for funding bodies, interdisciplinary researchers and groups. Edited by Simon Penny, based on input from participants in Synergies Workshop on Interdisciplinary Research June 28-30 2013, and especially Roc Parés and Swen Seebach.

The Synergies Workshop was organized and directed by Simon Penny, assisted by Mara Balestrini and Roc Parés. Swen Seebach was observer. Marta Gracia provided administrative and web support. It was hosted by Hangar Barcelona, under the auspices of Softcontrol (European Commission - Culture Programme 2007 – 2013), web-hosted on the Grid Spinoza website <http://gridspinoza.net/en/node/1032>, and <http://www.gridspinoza.net/en/node/1018>.

“Interdisciplinarity encourages reflexive consideration of disciplines. Philip Agre called this Critical Technical Practice. It reveals operational metaphors and methodological errors and exposes hidden assumptions of disciplinary cultures by denaturalization and interrogating operational metaphors and structuring narratives. It can help find disciplinary lacunae and extend disciplinary research scope/paradigms.“
